

We hope you enjoyed your Taster Lecture examining Medieval Crime and Punishment, from Professor Hannah Skoda, Tutorial Fellow in History. If you missed the live event, you can view the recording on Inspire Digital; log in using the passcode provided in your welcome email.

With each session in the Year 12 course, we will include a competition for you to participate in, based on the Taster Lecture in that session. Details of the competition, alongside further resources related to Medieval Crime and Punishment, are included in this sessions' Going Further!

COMPETITION AH1

Consider the three questions below. Respond to each question, numbering your responses (1, 2 & 3). In total, you should use 300 words or less.

1. What was the purpose of punishment?
2. How violent were the Middle Ages?
3. What does crime tell us about community and relationships in the Middle Ages?

HOW TO ENTER

For full details on how to submit your entry, please see the Arts & Humanities Competitions page of the Year 12 section on Inspire Digital. The deadline for entries to Competition AH1 is 5pm on Tuesday 6th April.

PRIZES

For each competition, up to 5 winning entries will each receive a £10 Amazon voucher. Each winning entry will also be published on Inspire Digital about a week after each competition's closing date.
